Select Miscellany.

From the N. Y. Ledger.

Public Improvements in Pennsylvania.

BY HON. SIMON CAMERON, U. S. SENATOR FROM PENNSYLVANIA.

Any one will see, who will take the trouble to read the debates on the location of the National Capital, that the decision of that question seems to have been made solely with reference to a connection of the East with the then great wilderness of the West. All the sagacious men then in public life looked forward to the time when the West with its wonderfully productive soil brought under subjection by industry, would exercise a controlling influence on the destiny of the country. Columbia, in the State of Pennsylvania, was at one time within one vote of becoming the site of the Capital; and Germantown, near, and now a part of Philadelphia, was actually decided on as the proper location by a majority of one. The first of these was favored because it was believed to be a favorable point from which to begin a slack-water route to the West. Germantown, situated near the Schuylkill, was chosen for the same reason. All looked forward to a system of canals which would accomplish this desirable object, and experience has fully demonstrated their wisdom in that great design. About 1790, General Washington and the great financier, Robert Morris, traveled on horseback from Philadelphia to the Susquehanna river, with a view of deciding whether a canal could be built over that route.

Shortly after this, some gentlemen near Philadelphia actually began building a canal to the west, did some work on its eastern end, built one or two locks on the dividing ridge near Lebanon, and for want of sufficient funds and knowledge of the work stopped. The money expendid on the enterprise was lost.

But the progressive men of the country, keeping their minds on the subject, continued to agitate the popular mind on it until 1820, when the Legislature of Pennsylvania chartered the Union Canal Company, and appropriate one million dollars to aid its constructions. In a few years the canal was completed between the Schuylkill and the Susquehanna. Although very small, this improvement did a great deal of good. But the most remarkable thing about it was its unpopularity with the masses. Not only the members of the General Assembly who passed the bill, but Governor Heister, who signed the act of incorporation, were driven from office at the first opportunity legally presented for testing public opinion, and the party to which they belonged went into a minority. I remember well what a mighty sum a million of dollars then seemed to be; and the political revolution caused by this appropriation showed on that one idea of its vastness was not confined by any means to myself.

Like all great projects intended for the public good, that of internal improvement progressed. In 1823, the New York canal—which had been pushed through against the prejudiced opposition of the people, by the genius of De Witt Clinton—was opened. Its success caused a revolution in the public mind all over the country. The effect was so marked in this State, that in 1825 a Convention was called to consider the subject. Every county in the State was represented, I believe. That body pronounced in favor of a grand system of public works, which should not only connect the East and the West, but also the waters of the Susquehanna with the Great Lakes, the West and the Northwest. Appropriations were recommended to the amount of three millions of dollars, and in 1826, I think, the work began. This sum seemed to be enormous, and the estimates of the engineers reached a total of six millions of dollars. Meeting an ardent friend of the system one day, he declared that a sum of that magnitude could never be expended on these works. I ventured to reply, with great deference to his age and experience that I thought it would be insufficient, and before they were completed I would not be surprised if ten million dollars would be found necessary. Looking at me steadily for a few moments, he closed the conversation by exclaiming: "Young man, your a d—d fool!" I was thus left in full possession of his opinion of me. But after we had spent $41,698,594 74 in the construction of these works, I found my estimate of his judgment was singularly in harmony with my opinion of his politeness. His candor I never doubted.

Our system of canals was completed, and the benefits derived from them were incalculable. When they were commenced our State was poor. Industry languished. The interchange of her products was difficult. Population was sparse. Intelligence was not generally diffused. Manufacturers struggled weakly along. Work was not plentiful. Wages were low. When they were finished, the busy hum of industry was heard on every hand. Our population had grown until we numbered millions. Our iron ore beds were yielding their precious hoards for human use. Coal mines, unknown or useless until means were provided for transporting their wealth to market, now sent millions of tons in every direction. Progress in every walk of advance civilization was realized, and we were on the high road to permanent prosperity. But in the meantime a new and better means of communication had been discovered, and the building of railroads quickly reduced the value of our canals; and the works we had completed at so much cost, and with such infinite labor, were suddenly superseded. We lost nearly all the money they had cost us, but the investment was wisely made. The return to our State was many times greater than the outlay.

In the Convention of 1825, there were two gentlemen who voted for railways instead of canals. One was Professor Vethcke, of Dickinson College, Carlisle; and the other was Jacob Alter, a man of very little education, but of strong understanding. The Professor was looked upon as a dreamer, and was supposed to have gone astray in his vagaries. But they both lived to see railroads extended over the whole world. As a part of our system of public works, we built a railroad from the Delaware to the Susquehanna, from Philadelphia to Columbia, and one from the Alleghany mountains to their western base. They were originally intended to be used with horse power. In the meantime the railroad system had been commenced, and the Pennsylvania Railroad, under the charge of a man of extraordinary ability, J. Edgar Thompson, was rapidly pushed to completion. Another great railway, the Philadelphia and Reading, was built to carry anthracite coal from the Schuylkill mines to market. A railroad was also built on each side of the Lehigh river, that another part of our coal territory might find a market in New York. An other was built from the north branch of the Susquehanna, connecting with the New York roads, and leading to the northern field. And yet another was built along the Susquehanna, through the southern coal basin to the City of Baltimore. The total cost of these roads, independent of the Pennsylvania railroad, was $95,250,410 10, as shown by official reports. Their earnings last year is officially given at $24,753,095 32. Each of these was forced to contend with difficulty and prejudice. All were unpopular, and all were looked upon with suspicion until they actually forced their usefulness on the public mind. Those who had made the fight for canals were forced to go over the whole ground again for railroads, and their double victory is greater than the success generally vouchsafed to the pioneers in any cause. These roads, with the Pennsylvania railroad and the lesser lines of improvement running through the coal region, cost over $207,000,000!

The Reading railroad will serve to illustrate the struggle of these great schemes. Its stock, now worth over par, once sold for twenty cents on the dollar; and at one time it was forced to sell its bonds at forty cents on the dollar to pay operating expenses. The vindication of the sagacity of the pioneers in these great enterprises is complete. All these lines are now profitable. It has been demonstrated everywhere in the United States, that every new railroad creates the business from which its stockholders receive their dividends. It seems therefore, scarcely possible to fix a limit to our profitable railroad expansion.—They open up new fields of enterprise, and this enterprise in turn, makes the traffic which fills the coffers of the companies.

I cannot now look back to the struggle to impress the people with the advantages of railways, without a feeling of weariness at the seemingly hopeless struggle, and one of merriment at the general unbelief in our new fangled project. Once, at Elizabethtown, in this State, a public meeting had been called for the purpose of securing subscriptions to the stock of the Harrisburg and Lancaster railroad. This road was intended to complete the railway between Philadelphia and Harrisburg, one hundred and five miles. A large concourse had gathered. Ovid F. Johnson, Attorney General of our State, and a brilliant orator, made an excellent speech; but the effect was was not in proportion to the effort. I determined to make an appeal, and I gave such arguments as I could. In closing, I predicted that men were now listening to me who would see the day when a man could breakfast in Harrisburg, go to Philadelphia, transact a day's business, and returning, eat his supper at home. Great applause followed this, and some additional subscriptions. Abram Harnly, a friend of the road, and one of the most intelligent of his class, worked his way to me, and taking me aside whispered, "That was a good idea about going to Philadelphia and return the same day." And then bursting with laughter, he added, "But you and I know better than that!" We both lived to see the road built; and now people can come and go over the distance twice a day, which Abram seemed to consider impossible for a single daily trip.

The peculiar condition of the States then known as "the West" was the subject of anxiety to many. They had attracted a large population, but the people were exclusively devoted to agriculture. Lacking a diversified industry, they were without accumulated wealth to build railways; nor were the States in condition to undertake such an onerous duty, although several of them made a feeble attempt to do so. At one time the bonds of Illinois, issued to pay money to build her canals, sold as low as thirty cents on the dollar. So with Indiana. Both those States were supposed to be bankrupt. It became, therefore, an important problem as to how means of communication should be supplied to the people of the West. Congress, in 1846, gave a grant of land to aid in building a railroad in Illinois. Every alternate section was given to the Company, and each alternate section was reserved by the Government. The road was built; and the one half of the land retained by the Government sold for a great deal more money than all was worth before the road was constructed. This idea was original, I think, with Mr. Whitney of Massachusetts, who spent two winters in Washington, about 1845, endeavoring to induce Congress to adopt that plan for the construction of a Trans-Continental Railway. He died before seeing his scheme succeed. Others have have built a road across the continent on the Central route. Another on the Northern route is now progressing, and the wealth and enterprise of those having it in charge renders its completion certain. And it yet remains for us to give to the people of the Southern route a road to the Pacific which shall develope the magnificent region through which it will pass, and give the country one route to the great ocean protected from the ordinary difficulty of climtae with which railroads must contend over so large a part of our territory. But I am admonished by the value of your space to confine myself to the limits of my own State.

I have said that the outlay we made in building our public works was of great benefit to us, even when the canals had been rendered almost valueless through the competition of railroads. This is paradoxical, but it is true nevertheless. The expenditure gave

THE STATE TREASURY QUESTION —GEO. F. HUFF ESQ. THE PEOPLE SPEAKING THROUGH THE PRESS.

Our exchanges come to hand ladened with well timed articles on the State Treasury question and able and judicious articles advocating Geo. F. Huff, Esq., as the "coming man"—the people's choice for this responsible position. If politicians wish to succeed, they must obey the voice of the people. If they wish to be leaders they must consent to be led. They cannot command, they must obey the popular voice. We clip the following from the Greensburg Herald:

"Under such circumstances, what is the plain duty of all Republicans who desire the success of our party organization, and thereby the permanent establishment of the policy and principles on which it is based? Is it not the clear duty of Republican Senators and Representatives in the Legislature, to drop both Irwin and Mackey, between whom and their active partisens so much bitterness exists? In that way only can you produce a result, over which the friends of neither party can exult as a triumph or feel humiliated by defeat.

We must have harmony and union.—The party is not numerically strong enough, to carry a day longer, an apple of discord in our ranks, which may be an excuse for many of its members to abate their zeal, much less become lukewarm or bolters of regular nominations. We have had experience enough of that sort at last month's election in many Districts of the State, which lost us, by a very few votes, several members of Congress, Senators and Assemblymen. Gentlemen, Republicans in the Legislature, you must squarely meet the expectations of the masses of the party in the State, by taking a new man for State Treasurer:—one not openly, or in any way, identified with this old fight; and besides, one fit and worthy of the place.

We have heretofore intimated that Geo. F. Huff, Esq., of Greensburg, is just the man. Those who know him, know very well that he could not allow himself to use, or others for him, any but the most honest, honorable and dignified means, to secure him the most distinguished and lucrative position in the country. Of his capacity to discharge the duties of the office of State Treasurer, in such a manner as to promote the interests, honor and dignity of the Commonwealth, there can be no doubt. His whole past history—though yet a young man—offers a sufficient guaranty. The high position he holds to-day in society wherever known, as a successful and reliable business man, is wholly due to his own inherent worth, energy, tact and unquestioned integrity. A gentleman without a blemish on his moral or christian character; and whose familiarity with all financial matters, and close application to business, and fidelity to trusts committed to him has secured for him the highest success in all undertakings. Morally he is the superior perhaps, of any of those who have filled the position for the past ten years at least.

It is fast becoming a settled conviction of the public mind, that the men who raise themselves from poor boyhood, by fidelity, energy and strict adherence to moral precept, to high and responsible positions in the country, are after all, the most reliable and most deserving. We can assure our Republican friends all over the State that Geo. F. Huff, Esq., is one of this class of men. He is a sound active Republican.

We are pleased to find that he has quite a number of letters from Senators, members of the next House, who are uncommitted to any body else and who speak of him in kind and flattering terms."

The Greensburg Tribune, speaks out boldly declaring that the people will no longer be ruled by "Rings" or factions, and that the only road to peace, prosperity and harmony in our organization lies in choosing a new man for Treasurer, and then says:

"We notice that a number of our exchanges, and others with whom we do not exchange, take the same view we do in regard to State Treasurer, that is, that some new man, one not identified with either of the two factions that have grown out of the Irwin and Mackey contest for this position, should be selected this time, so that all causes of further trouble might be obviated. We feel and know that Gen. Irwin's course last winter forever blasted his chances for a nomination from the Republican party, and we presume he knows that about as well as any one else, and therefore is feeling his way again to the State Treasurership through the Democratic party in connection with half a dozen venal Republicans, who are expected, for a consideration, to bolt the caucus nomination, and vote with the Democrats for Gen. Irwin. We must confess that R. W. Mackey stands in a different position from that of Gen. Irwin, and therefore we do not endorse all that has been said and written against him; but still for the peace and harmony of the organization we would earnestly suggest that all pretext or excuse should be taken away from General Irwin and his few venal creatures for giving trouble to the party, by selecting a competent and reliable man whose election would not be resisted by any Republican. We notice a very sensible article in the Sunday Mirror, published in Allegheny City, dated the 13th Nov., 1870, upon this question. We would not endorse all it contains, and yet, in the main, we think the writer takes a correct view of the subject. In speaking of our townsman, the writer says:

"We are not willing to say anything against the qualifications of Irwin or Mackey, but we know Mr. Huff to be a high minded honorable gentleman, with business capacity, inferior to no man in the state, and one who could do much to bring order out of chaos and confusion that has reigned too long at Harrisburg. It is claimed by his friends that they can unite on him, and that a strong effort will be made to secure this end, to avoid the bitterness that existed last winter. We would not be associated if Mr. Huff is the 'coming man' and if so the office will be filled by a worthy of the position."

CONSTITUTIONAL REFORM—EX-GOV. CURTIN ON THE PROPOSED REVISION OF OUR STATE CONSTITUTION.

A private letter from Ex-Governor A. G. Curtin has been received at Harrisburg, containing the following, relative to the proposed revision of our State Constitution. After stating that he has not participated in political discussions since he has been in Russia, the Governor says:

But I cannot refrain from encouraging you in the important reform you treat so fully and forcibly in your last letter. I am rejoiced to learn that an earnest effort is about to be made to secure a general revision of the Constitution of Pennsylvania, by calling upon the people of the State to exercise their sovereign power through the channel of a reform convention. Surely, such a movement must meet with the cordial approval, and enlist the positive efforts of the best men of both parties, for the necessity of thorough reform is painfully apparent to all. It is not in any sense a question of party politics, and it should be preserved from the dangers of mere partisan direction. The revision of the fundamental law of a great Commonwealth like Pennsylvania, after the lapse of a third of a century, embracing a decade of matchless progress, is a work of no common magnitude.

It is most vital to our vast and varied material interests, and equally so to our future honor and advancement, that the people should be enabled to perfect their sadly-needed reforms in the most unbiased and dispassionate manner, and therefore special elections, as far removed as possible from the annual political struggles, should be held, not only for the election of delegates to the convention, but also for the ratification or rejection of the amendments which may be matured and proposed.

Such a convention at this time could not fail to elevate the character of our legislation, and to redeem our political system from many of the debauching influences which have become so closely interwoven with it. It would enforce a just deference to the popular will in the enactment of laws and in the exercise of all delegated powers, and when the will of the people is respected, the good name and prosperity of the Commonwealth are never imperilled.

THE MILITARY SITUATION.

The first four weeks of the present great struggle between France and Germany, says the Philadelphia Press, was remarkable for the number and character of the battles fought. From Weissenburg to Sedan the invader moved with irresistable force, crushing down everything in the shape of opposition. The military prowess of a boasted empire was laid prostrate, and the empire with it. The world looked on in astonishment and anxiously asked, What next?

But with the surrender of McMahon the war assumed an entirely different character. For three months there has been no decisive engagement. An apparently endless round of strategic movements has wearied and well-nigh disgusted the heretofore interested American reader. But if the despatches of the past few days indicate anything, it is that fighting on a grand scale is about to be renewed. General De Paladines has mustered an army of upwards of one hundred and fifty thousand men, and placed them in position along the banks of the river Loire, his right resting on Glen, about forty miles southeast of Orleans, and his left on Chateau-du-Loir, midway between Tours and Le Mans, with the centre at Vendome, about seventy miles south of Paris. Along his entire front the German line extends, commanded by Prince Frederick Charles and General Von Der Tann. Paris cannot hold out much longer. Starvation, if nothing else, will soon compel Trochu to sally out or surrender. If De Paladines refuses to fight now, and allows himself to be pushed south or flanked and double up what will become of Trochu? If he is to do something for the relief of Paris, he has already delayed longer than he should have done. Germany, too, is getting tired of apparent inactivity about Paris. King William must strike another blow before long. This being the situation of affairs, we shall not be surprised to hear of events as stirring and important during the next fortnight as at any time since the Crown Prince made his dash from the Black Forest.

SENATOR SCOTT FOR PRESIDENT.

The New York Sun may be added to the list of influential newspapers that have recently come out squarely for protection. In discussing the absurdity of the proposed Revenue Reform party movement, the Sun charges that its real object is to overthrow President Grant, and concludes thus:

It is so manifest that free trade is out of the question as long as the country is burdened with a vast debt and compelled to raise an enormous revenue, requiring at least an average of forty per cent. duties upon all imports, that no sensible man can talk in earnest of adopting free trade. When the debt is paid, the people can, if they choose, support the government by means of direct taxes rather than duties upon imports; but it will be a quarter of a century before that millenial condition is attained. Until then we must have a high tariff, and we must also raise an immense sum by internal taxes. The only revenue reform that is now practicable is to arrange the import duties and the internal taxes so as to render them the least burdensome and the most satisfactory possible to the various interests of the country. That this can be better accomplished through either of the existing parties than by the formation of a new one needs no proof.

But the danger which this new movement has in store for the Republicans is serious, and the sooner they obviate it by pitching Grant overboard and taking up as their candidate for 1872 some man like Lyman Trumbull, Roscoe Conkling or John Scott, who by opposition to the odious and unconstitutional income taxes has identified himself with a real reform of the revenue, and yet is not pledged to extreme and impracticable ideas, the better it will be for them.

Senator Scott of Pennsylvania, we do not think, will lend himself to any scheme looking to the overthrow of President Grant. Still should he be placed in nomination for the highest office in the gift of the people, we know that he would carry Pennsylvania by an overwhelming majority. His sterling integrity and eminent capacity as a statesman constitute him one of the most available of our public men for the Presidency.—Price Current.

THANKS.—Col. D. K. Fate has our thanks for a nice lot of sausages. The Col's. three hogs weighed 893 lbs.

We also return our thanks to George B. Weaver, Esq., for a nice roast of venison, presented to us by him.

The St. John's Lutheran Church, at Easton has given over $1,000 to widows, orphans and the poor during the past year, besides raising $6,000 for other religious purposes.

OUR VICTORY.

The Philadelphia Press always able, strong and truthful takes the same view of the result of the recent elections as we do, and says:

"Forty-five majority in the new National House, is a better endorsment than any President ever had in the second year of his administration within the past generation. Neither Jackson, Van Buren, Harrison, Tyler, Polk, Fillmore, Pierce, or Buchanan, enjoyed such a popular approval. Not one of these men went before the people as an advocate of measures so loudly and bitterly challenged, and so entirely revolutionary.

President Grant in the late Congressional elections was the embodiment of social and political renovation. He represented the reconstruction of the Union on the basis of perfect liberty and equality, including the protection of labor against the aggressions of domestic and foreign capital. On these great questions he has never concealed his opinions. The result is a majority in the House of Representatives of forty-five and perhaps of fifty."

AN EDITOR AS A JAILOR.—Some weeks ago, says the Williamsport Gazette & Bulletin, we noticed that Father Gould, of the Cameron County Press, had assumed the responsible position of Jailor at Emporium. It appears that the Father fed his prisoners too high, and furnished them such luxuries as tobacco. They failed to appreciate his generosity, and one of them crawled through the key-hole and escaped. They imposed on the Father by representing that they had no money, when it turned out that they had an abundance of that truck about their clothes. Heartily disgusted at their lack of gratitude, the Father has published "What he knows about keeping Jail," from which it appears that he lost $81.55 for the first quarter. Hereafter, he announces, prisoners will be kept on "bread and water," and no tobacco furnished. From which we infer that the head of the Father has assumed a true level.

The editor of the Bellefonte Republican circulated among the hogs in his borough the other day rooting up weights, he did it so Brown that we wondered if he wasn't raised among hogs, and on reading another item as to how he got a high hat, we concluded that he must be a bore.---Huntingdon Globe.

We never knew before the relationship we sustained to the Editor of the Globe, nor why he was generally called "dad" Lewis. Judging from the tameness of "dad's" paper, and its topsy turvey course in politics, he is not a bore; but a ricketty wheel—barrow. In the meantime we continue to recommend W. F. Warberton, 430 Chestnut street, Philadelphia Pa., as the best hatter in the city.

THE MONTHLY NOVELETTE FOR JANUARY.—We have received this new candidate for popular favor, for it is an old favorite on an entirely new foundation. The Monthly Novelette will win its way to popularity without much trouble, as it is to contain only first-class stories. No essays, or dry chaff, or long reviews which only a few read. The ladies will like it for its love stories, the gentlemen for its stirring adventures, and the girls and boys for its juvenile department which cannot be surpassed. But just glance at the list of contents and we will see what is offered for 20 cents or $2,00 per annum: "The Baronet's Daughter" (Illustraded), by J. S. Le Fanu; "The Major's First and Last Duel," by James F. Fitts; "Judge Gordon's Will," by Jessima Dale; "Worthless Joe," a California tale, by John Clerke; "As Cunning as a Fox," by Malcolm Alstyne; "Ozime's Wish," by M. T. Caldor; "A Marquesan Adventure," by Wm. H. Macy; "Fate in a Rag-Bag," by Louise Dupee; "The Beautiful Circe," by Rett Winwood; "Disinterment of Columbus," by Mrs. Caroline Orne; "A False Step," by I. P. Miller; "Gretchen's Good Christmas," by Elizabeth Bigelow; "Sam Wheeler and the Fisher Cat," by C. A. Stephens; and lots of poetry, illustrations, &c., &c., which go to make a first-class magazine generally interesting to the public. The first number is little ahead of time, so that all can see it before subscribing for other journals. The February number will be issued about the middle of January; other numbers about the same time each month. It is for sale at all periodical depots, or $2,00 can obtain it for a year. LOCAL ITEMS.

FOR SALE.—A good top-buggy, nearly new. Enquire at this office.

CALL IN.—Everybody having children going to school ought to call at the Post Office, for copy books, slates, pencils, blackboard chalk, &c.

WE call attention to the advertisement of the N. Y. METHODIST in another column. It is one of the best religious and family papers in the country.

POPULAR.—The popular drink among the young men of our place is known as "the same." It is said that it never fails to produce the desired result.

PRESENTED.—John S. Summerville, Superintendant of the Snowshoe coal mines, was made the recipient of a splendid gold headed cane on the 14th inst.

COURT.—His Honor, Judge Mayer, assisted by his Right and Left bowers, are transacting Court business in this place this week with dispatch and correctness.

EDUCATE.—Every lady who educates her servants into greater truthfulness, fidelity, self-respect and orderly ways of life, is doing missionary work of the best sort.

TRUE.—Josh Billings says whenever a minister has preached a sermon that pleazes the whole congregashun, he probably haz preached one that the Lord won't endorse.

ON A VISIT.—Rev. John Brown, who formerly traveled the Philipsburg circuit, and who has been a Missionary to India for ten years past, is now on a visit to his old associates.

IN LUCK.—Mr. J. M. Kepler, formerly of Philipsburg, but now of Petroleum Centre, is the luckey recipient of five hundred dollars per day from his investments in the oil regions.

FESTIVAL.—The ladies of Philipsburg will hold a Fair and Festival for the benefit of the M. E. Church of that place, commencing on the 22d of December and continuing during the holidays.

PHŒNIX.—The Moshannon Land and Lumber Company whose saw mill was destroyed by fire, a short time since, have already erected a new one, and have it enclosed ready to receive its machinery.

SCHOOL books cheap at the Post Office.

R. P. HALL & Co., Nashua, N. H., proprietors of Hall's Vegetable Sicilian Hair Renewer, publish a treatise on the Hair, which they will send free to any one on application. This is a valuable little book, send for it.

WARNING.—Tea drinkers swallow leather every day. The albumen of the milk and the tannin of the tea unite and make flakes of leather. It has not yet been computed how many cups of tea must be prepared in order to get enough material for a pair of boots.

DILATORY.—"If twere done when 'tis done, then 'twere well if were done quickly" will apply to those enterprising dealers, not few hereabouts, who are very dilatory about storing their goods, and who leave them frequently a long while on the sidewalk.

RANKIN'S Book Store is ahead of all others.

A GOOD CHANCE.—Young ladies desiring an acquaintance with a gay and happy Lothario, should by all means improve the opportunity of immediately making themselves known to the polite, accomplished and facinating Harry Benton? Who knows him?

ARTISTIC SINGING.—Is there no way of stopping the murderous style of singing which executes some of our best hymns, or rather garrotes them in the following style? "The ye-he-he hear of Jew-Billy, of Jew-Billy, Jew-ew-ew Billy-ey-ey Jew-ew-ew Bible he he is come."

MILLESBURG SCHOOLS.—The County Superintendant visited the Public Schools last week, and found them in excellent condition. The first grade is taught by P. W. Campbell; the second grade by Miss Mollie McCoy, and the third grade by Miss Emma Cook.

RELIGIOUS.—Union services were held in the Presbyterian church, of this place, on Thanksgiving day.

Union services were also held in the M. E. Church, of this place, on last Sunday evening. The house was crowded, and an able sermon preached on the occasion by Rev. Robert Hamill, of Oak Hall.

RANKIN'S is the largest Book Store in town.

NEW FEET.—Last spring a very fine and valuable horse belonging to John Uzzle, of Snow Shoe, was so badly foundered that the hoofs came off all of the animal's feet. Under the skilful treatment of Mr. Uzzle, entire new hoofs have been made to grow, and the horse is now possessed of four new feet and is just as valuable as he was before he was foundered.

RETURNED.—Mr. Wasser, formerly of this place, but now a resident of Kansas, and one of the publishers of the Girard Press, after a brief sojourn among his numerous friends, returned to his Western home. Mr. Wasser is a fine specimen of a Pennsylvania gentleman and the paper he is connected with is a live Republican Journal, full of vim and enterprise. Such a paper deserves the support of the people of that section of country.

For Holiday Gifts, go to Rankins.

TEACHING.—What does the teacher require? First, an elastic and energetic constitution with a predominance of the Mental and Motive temperaments, clearness, and compactness to the mind, and strength and earnestness to the character. He needs robust health, and the temperance and exercise which promote health. The teacher requires, second, a large and active brain with a decided predominance of the perceptive intellect, indicated by a fulness of the lower part of the forehead. These give him facility in acquiring, while fulness through the middle of the forehead enables him to retain what he learns and have it ready for use. The reasoning organs, which give fulness and prominence to the upper part of the forehead, should be ample, so that he may be able to explain to inquisitive pupils the philosophy involved in the subjects of study. He needs a full back head, where the social organs are located, that he may win and hold the affection of his pupils. He should have large Firmness, to give dignity and strength of character, to govern well and command the respect of the pupils. Large Conscientiousness will make him just and impartial; Large Language, enable him to explain what he knows; Veneration and Benevolence, that he may impress his pupils with a spirit of kindness and with a consciousness of a higher Power, and that reverence for just authority is a virtue. A good development of Caution and Secretiveness, to give watchfulness equal to detect the most trickey of pupils; Combativeness, to give power and courage that the rebellions may be impressed with respect for his latent power to punish. Who fills the bill?

LECTURES.—Lectures this season are not as financially profitable to the Associations under whose auspices they are given, as formerly. One of the reasons given for the declining interest of the public in these ventures, is the fact that the Lecturer sets too high a price on his recitations, consequently the admission fee has to be in proportion. People are fast becoming too intelligent to pay seventy-five cents and one dollar to listen to a male or female speak a piece, when by investing a five cent nickel in a good live daily newspaper, they can read all the Lecturer has to say, and all the important news that is transpiring on the globe, with well written political and scientific articles thrown in. The age of humbug is rapidly passing away.

LADIES go and look at the choice stock of Books, at J. I. Rankin's.

SINGULAR FACTS ABOUT CHURCHES.—There are ten counties in Pennsylvania, with an aggregate population at the present time of 300,000, in which there are no Baptist church; seven other counties, with a population of 200,000, in which there is only one church in each. Outside of Philadelphia the largest number of Baptist churches in any one county is in Luzerne; next comes Chester, Bradford, Allegheny, Tioga and Wayne, in each of which are over seventeen churches. The county whose churches have the largest membership outside of Philadelphia, is Chester; next comes Allegheny, Luzerne and Montgomery, each of which has over 2,000.

TO YOUNG WOMEN WHO WANT HUSBANDS.—Among the young men in the matrimonial market, only a small number are rich, and in America, such rarely make good husbands. But the number of those who are just beginning in life, who are filled with ambition, who have a future, is very large. Those are worth having. But such will not, dare not, ask you to join them, while they see you so idle, silly, and gorgeously attired. Let them see that you are habitrious, economical, with habits that secure health and strength; that you would be willing to begin at the beginning in life, with the man you would consent to marry.

DON'T go out of town without seeing Rankin's Book Store.

CHRISTMAS BALL.—Persons who take delight in "tripping the fantastic toe," or enjoy the giddy maze of the fascinating and lucious waltz, should bear in mind that a grand Christmas ball will be given in Bush's Hall, on Friday evening, December 23d. Superintended by Mr. George Ronian, the gentlemanly proprietor of the Big Spring Eating House. A sumptuous supper will be provided on the occasion. Tickets admitting a gentleman and lady, will be one dollar. Editors and borough officers admitted free. From the well known abilities of the Superintendant, this ball promises to be the best of the season.

SABBATH SCHOOL INSTITUTE.—The third meeting of the Harris township Sabbath School Institute will take place at the Spring Creek Presbyterian Church on Saturday Dec. 3d, 1870, at 10 o'clock A. M. All the adult members of the several sabbath schools in the township are requested to be present and bring their lunch with them so as to remain all day. All others interested in the Sabbath School cause are cordially invited to be present and participate in the exercises.

Go to N. Beck for choice 5 cent Segars.

EXTENSIVELY USED.—The almost universal adoption of Speer's Wine by the Medical Faculty in preference to all other wines, is the best guarantee which the public can have of its purity and beneficial effects upon the human system. The "Standard Wine Bitters," are made of his pure wine as a base, with Peruvian Bark, Chamomile Flowers, Wild Cherry Bark, Snake Root, and such other herbs and Roots as will give vigor and tone to the system. For sale by Druggists.

DOTS.—For the benefit of those who are deeply interested in his welfare, including the matrimonial part of it, "Dots" desires to say he considers that his age, his experience, and his position entitled him to be allowed to be a free agent in all things including the selection of a life partner. He has seven-teen young ladies in his mind's eye at present, any one of whom may become Mrs. "Dots." But then that's his own and one of the young ladies' business.

MOTHERS.—There is a growing mania in this place, on the part of mothers, to dress their boys in sailor clothes. An early yearning for the joys of "a life on the rolling deep," has often been gratified by as simple a thing as a sailor's jacket or tarpaulin. Mothers please reflect, before you clothe your sons in the janty little costume, whether it would be agreeable to you to have him some day slip off for the briny deep.

LABOR.—A great many comments have been made by the Press of the country on the following paragraph in Wendle Philip's letter to Judge Cowly, and by some of them denounced as "wicked red republicanism."

"It is a shame to our Christianity and civilization for our social system to provide and expect that one man at seventy years of age shall be lord of many thousands of dollars, while hundreds of other men who have made as good use of their talents and opportunities, lean on charity for their daily bread."

That the facts set forth in that paragraph are self evident, no reasonable person will deny—they are literally true. Any conscientious Christian who has read "Renan's Apostles," will fully endorse Mr. Phillips. The following paragraph is extracted from that eminently christian work:

"When a man dies of hunger, when entire classes languish in misery, the policy of the profane social system limits itself to acknowledging that the fact is unfortunate. * * * * * * * Primitive Christianity may be defined as a vast association of poor people; as a heroic struggle against egotism, founded upon the idea that no one has a right to more than is absolutely necessary for him; and that all the superfluity belongs to those who possess nothing."

According to Renan and all the Primitive Fathers of the Christian Church, Wendle Philips, in his paragraph quoted, only re-produces the philosophy taught by all the early Christians.

TWO ENGINES.—We say Engines not "Ingens." We have two engines for sale, and we want to sell them. We offer them very low, with a hope that some person will come and buy. We have two engines. Three horse power. They were both built by H. D. Landis, Master Mechanic of the B. & S. S. R. R. Co. Mr. Landis has few, if any superiors as a mechanic. His work always recommends itself.

The one engine, has boiler and all the fixtures complete. Is in nearly as good condition as new, and is therefore in the best of running order. The other is entirely new, has never been in use. There is no boiler with this engine. They are both the same size, and we will give the purchaser the choice of either engine. The boiler will suit for either. Price for the two $450. Price for either with boiler $350.

Go to Beck's in the Bush House Block, next to entrance of the Hotel, for Segars, Tobacco, Pipes, &c.

HE DRINKS.—We take the following touching and truthful paragraph from the literary press on account of its sadly local application:

"He Drinks."—How ominous that sentence falls! How we pause in conversation and calculate—a pity! He was a fine young man, walking down one of our principal streets. How his mother hopes he will not drink when he grows older; how his sisters persuade themselves that it is only a few wild oats he is sowing! And yet the old men shake their heads, and feel gloomy when they think of it. Young man, just commencing life, buoyant with hope, don't drink! You are freighted with a precious cargo. The hope of your parents, of your sisters, of your wife, of your children, all are laid upon you! In you the aged live over again their days; through you only can the one you love obtain a position in society; and from the level in which you place them must your children go into the great struggle of life.

VISITING SCHOOLS.—It is the duty of parents to manifest some further interest in the work than merely to send their children thither; the teachers want their co-operation. The scholars, the encouragement of an occasional visit. If parents talk at home with their children freely about their schools it is well; if they visit the schoolroom occasionally, and seem interested in making a pleasant thing of learning, it is much better. The presence of the father or mother at the child's recitation once a month, will have a salutary influence on both teacher and child. Even the parent will be benefitted. His or her attention will be awakened to questions which might otherwise go unthought of for years, and which have practical bearings on the mind.—Ex.

TIN AND HARDWARE.—Isaac Haupt sells the Times Cook stove, which is the heaviest and cheapest stove in this market. No. 8, can be bought for $28, together with a large assortment of gas burners and heating stoves, at correspondingly rates.

He holds out special inducements to purchasers, who pay cash, at his brick Tin and Hardware store, on the corner opposite the Bush House, where he Manufactures tin and sheet iron ware.

Mr. Haupt also has on hand and for sale a lot of good brick, also a fine assortment of Japan and fancy tinware, iron sadders, skimmers and dippers.

CHIGNONS COLLAPSE.—These abominations have had their day, and frizzled, frowzy heads of monstrous size are about to give way to smooth plaits, which are allowed to hang down the back, a la Chinese, with, however, this difference, that the Chinese wear only one tail, while our fashionable ladies sport two. One of the reasons assigned for retiring the chignon in disgrace is that it made the heads of some of the fair ones who sported it, a little more lively than was altogether agreeable.

SMASHED.—A smashing affair occurred on High street Sunday evening. Two ladies met, and being of the vigorous and loving kind, they attempted to kiss each other, but not calculating correctly the rate of speed with which they were approaching each other, their mouths came together with a rap, resulting in the complete destruction of two sets of false teeth.

BECK'S Segars are all choice.

IF you don't want to disgust everybody with your offensive breath, cure your Catarrh upon which it depends. $500 reward is offered by the proprietor of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy for a case of Catarrh which he cannot cure. It is sold by druggists. Can get it for sixty cents by mail from Dr. R. V. Pierce, 133 Seneca street, Buffalo, N. Y. Pamphlet free. Don't be swindled by men calling themselves Dr. Sage; Dr. R. V. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y., is the only man now living that can make the Genuine and original Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy, and his private Government Revenue Stamp, bearing upon it his portrait, name and address, is upon every package of the genuine.

HOW IS THIS FOR HIGH.—We clip the following from the Fulton Republican as one of the most remarkable freaks of nature on record:

Jonathan J. Bitner informs us that Mrs. John Miller of Oakland, Allegheny county, Md., recently presented her husband with four children at one birth. At last accounts the mother and children were all doing well. The neighbors have presented the mother with a purse of $500.

FOSTER & DEVLING.—This enterprising firm has just received another large supply of choice goods of all varieties at their excellent store. They are determined not to be undersold in this town or county. They delight in showing their goods and extend a cordial invitation to the people of this and adjoining counties to give them a call. Lumbermen and business men generally should call and see them. 1t

SABBATH SCHOOL INSTITUTE.—The Second Institute for 1870, will be held at Boalsburg, under the auspices of the Centre County Sunday School Association, on the 13th and 14th of December, commencing at 2 o'clock P. M. Distinguished gentlemen have been invited and are expected to be in attendance and take part in the exercises. A general invitation is cordially extended to all friends of the cause.

GROCERIES.—We have frequently referred to the Grocery Store of Levi A. Miller as the best place in town to purchase groceries, canned fruits, hams, crackers, etc., and we have no reason to change our opinion. Levi is a live man, clever and accommodating, pays for all he gets, and of course can afford to sell at the lowest prices.

DRUGS AND BIRDS.—Messrs. Zeller & Jarret, the enterprising Druggists on Bishop street, keep constantly on hand a large and superior stock of fresh Drugs, medicines, &c. They have also constantly on hand quite a number of Canary birds—sweet singers, which they sell with cages at remarkably low rates. Call and see them.

BASE BALL.—The Snowflakes of Eagleville, and the Fairplays of Beech Creek, played a match game of base ball on the grounds of the former on the 12, inst., resulting in a victory for the Fairplays. At the close of the 8th inning the scores stood: Fairplays 57; Snowflakes 49.

FOR SALE.—A valuable Hotel property for sale in Central City, with all the modern improvements. It is one of the best stands both for store and hotel in Central Pennsylvania. For further particulars apply at the office of the Bellefonte REPUBLICAN. 1t21f.

IRON SMELTING.—The largest iron smelting manufacturing establishment on this continent is just now being erected in St. Louis county, Missouri—one that will require sixteen heavy engines and twenty-three hundred skilled workmen to run it when in operation.

TASTES.—A young lady in a neighboring county recently tried to hang herself because her nose was turning red. "Tastes is various," said Sam Weller. Some men spend large sums of money, time and whiskey in bringing their noses to a bright red.

N. BECK'S is the place for Good Tobacco.

MARRIED.

On the 27th inst., by Justice S. M. Irwin, Mr. Sanford Wilson and Miss Rachel E. Miller, of Bellefonte.

On the 24th of November, 1870, by Rev. N. J. Mitchell, Dr. Edwin S. DeBrorth and Miss Hannah Jenkins, all of Howard.

On the 17th inst., at the M. E. Parsonage Millesburg by Rev. J. W. Cleaver Mr. Jeremiah C Johnstonbaugh and Miss. Margarett E. Curry all of this county.

On the 22nd inst., By the same, Mr. Jacob W. Sunday to Miss. Susan Gummow all of this county.

On the 24th inst., at Oak Hall, by Rev. Robert Hamill, Mr. John M. Louie of Houserville to Miss. Jennie M. Stover of Buffalo Run.

DIED.

On the 14th inst., in Ferguson Township Centre Co. Pa. Mrs. Elizabeth Kreider wife of John Kreider aged 67 years, 7 months and 23 days.

Mrs. Kreider was a daughter of George Rumbarger and was born August 21st, 1803. She was united in Holy Wedlock to Mrs. John Kreider the 16th of January 1829. Was the Mother of 11 children two of whom died quite young, nine of whom are still living. She was a consistent member of the Lutheran Church 41 years, was confirmed by the Rev. Dr. Lochman. She bore her suffering with peculiar christian fortitude and died in the triumphs of redeeming grace. The loss her numerous relatives sustained in her death, we know proved her eternal gain.

M. G. F., Pastor.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

The $12 Lever Watch, No 15,565, 14 chased from Chas. P. Norton & Co. 86 Nassau-street New-York, January 6th, has been carried by me for seven months, with a total variation in time of only 26 seconds, without the slightest regulating, and presents the same brilliancy of color as when purchased.

JAMES R. WILTON,
Sec. American S. M. Co. N. Y.
New-York, July 30th, 1870.

I have for the past eight months, constantly used one of the $15 Norton, Oride Gold Lever Watches, manufactured by Chas. P. Norton & Co. 86 Nassau-Street, New-York, and found the total variation in its time but one half minute, (30 seconds), and it retains the same appearance of gold, as when purchased. Several of our men use them with the same results. I cheerfully recommend them for correctness and wear.

☞ DEAFNESS, BLINDNESS, and CATARRH, treated with the utmost success by Dr. Isaacs, M. D. and Professor of Diseases of the Eye and Ear, (his specialty) in the Medical College of Pennsylvania, 15 years experience, (formerly of Leyden, Holland.) No 805 Arch Street, Phila. Testimonials can be seen at his office. The medical faculty are invited to accompany their patients, as he has no secrets in his practice. Artificial eyes inserted without pain. No charge for examination. v2n30-1y

☞ The Five Dollar Sewing Machine purchased by me, January, 1866, from the Family Sewing Machine Company, 86 Nassau-Street, N. Y. has been in almost constant use ever since. It has not been out of order once. Has cost nothing for repairs, and I find it simple and reliable in operation, and always ready to sew. I know this is all one who sees them with the new improvements are very much pleased. The one I have I would not part with.

LIFE INSURANCE FOR THE PEOPLE!

HOMESTEAD LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY, OF PENNSYLVANIA.
OFFICE--701 Chestnut St., Philadelphia.
W. M. SEYFERT, Pres't. LAURANCE MEYERS, Vice Pres't. R. W. DORPHLEY, Sec'y
B. E. DAVIS, Sup't of Agencies.

This Company, organized by leading representatives of the Industrial interests of the State, widely known as successful and responsible business men, desiring to place Life Insurance within reach of all, has adopted a system of enabling every man to provide for his family in case of his death, at a cost so trifling as scarcely to be felt. Special attention is called to this Company's much needed feature in Life Insurance, entirely new in this country: designed to protect in case death, the interests of

SHAREHOLDERS IN BUILDING ASSOCIATIONS

And all others who have borrowed money or purchased property payable in instalments extending over a series of years, by CANCELLING any balance of indebtedness remaining UNPAID in case of DEATH

This company issues all the ordinary forms of Life and Endowment Policies at low rates of Premium, on the Participating Plan, with but few restrictions as to occupation, and

NONE AS TO TRAVEL OR RESIDENCE.

☞ Full information as to Plans and Features, is contained in Pamphlets which will be forwarded by mail on application to the Home Office. Active and responsible men wanted as Agents.

EDWIN H. KINSLOE,

COMPLETION OF THE PACIFIC RAILROAD.

GREAT RUSH TO STERNBERG'S.

Sung to the tune of Yankee Doodle.

The Great Pacific Railroad's laid,
From ocean unto ocean,
And now complete connections made.
An enterprising notion.

The mighty work at last is done,
So speedy and brisk, oh!
And now in ten days we can run
From here to San Francisco.

No more we take the ancient route,
The stage, a horrid slow thing;
It banged the passengers about
And wore out all their clothing.

CHORUS, for the end of each verse:

The Great Pacific Railroad laid,
From ocean unto ocean,
And we buy clothes from A. STERNBERG,
A most delightful notion.

Through passengers by the Pacific Railroad will call at the store of A. Sternberg, before starting, and provide themselves with a complete outfit of Spring and Summer clothing, the very best assortment of which will always be found at A. Sternberg's Store.
People who travel by other routes, and also people who, instead of travelling by any route at all, prefer to stay at home, can find the most superior and seasonable garments, for every occasion, of every variety, and at the lowest price.
Do not fail to call and examine our stock before purchasing elsewhere; if you do not, we are sure you will be sorry that you did not. Our goods are put down to the lowest figure. We sell whole suits, according to quality.

RANGING FROM $6,50 to $18,00

—the very best.

MANHOOD

In the Young and Rising Generation-

The vegetative powers of life are strong, but in a few years how often the pallid hue, the lackjustre eye and emaciated form, and the impossibility of application to mental effort, show its baneful influence. It soon becomes evident to the observer that some depressing influence is checking the development of the body. Consumption is talked of, and perhaps the youth is removed from school and sent into the country. This is one of the worst movements. Removed from ordinary diversions of the ever-changing scenes of the city, the powers of the body, too much enfeebled to give zest to healthful and rural exercise, thoughts are turned inwards upon themselves.

If the patient be a female, the approach of the menses is looked for with anxiety, as the first symptom in which Nature is to show her saving power in diffusing the circulation and visiting the cheek with the bloom of health. Alas! increase of appetite has grown by what it fed on; the energies of the system are prostrated, and the whole economy is deranged. The beautiful and wonderful period in which body and mind undergo so fascinating a change from child to woman, is looked for in vain. The parent's heart bleeds in anxiety, and fancies the grave but waiting for its victim.

HELMBOLD'S

EXTRACT BUCHU

For Weakness arising from excesses or early indiscretion, attended with the following symptoms: Indisposition to Exertion, Loss of Power, Loss of Memory, Difficulty of Breathing, General Weakness, Horror of Death, Night Sweats, Cold Feet, Wakefulness, Dimness of Vision Languor, Universal Lassitude of the Muscular System, Often Enormous Appetite with Dyspeptic Symptoms, Hot Hands, Flushing of the Body, Dryness of the Skin, Pallid Countenance and Eruptions on the Face, Pain in the Back, Heaviness of the Eyelids, Frequently Black Spots Flying before the Eyes, with Temporary Suffusion and Loss of Sight, Want of attention, Great Mobility, Restlessness, with Horror of Society. Nothing more desirable to such patients than Solitude, and nothing they more dread, for Fear of Themselves; no Repose of Manner, no Earnestness, no Speculation, but a hurried Transition from one question to another.

These symptoms, if allowed to go on—which this Medicine invariably removes—soon follow Loss of Power, Fatuity, and Epileptic Fits, in one of which the patient may expire.

During the Superintendence of Dr. Wilson at the Bloomingdale Asylum, this sad result occurred to two patients; reason had for a time left them, and both died of epilepsy. They were of both sexes, and about twenty years of age.

Who can say that these excesses are not frequently followed by those direful diseases Insanity and Consumption! The records of the Insane Asylums, and the melancholy deaths by Consumption, bear ample witness to the truth of these assertions. In Lunatic Asylums the most melancholy exhibition appears. The countenance is actually sodden and quite destitute—neither Mirth or Grief ever visits it. Should a sound of the voice occur, it is rarely articulate.

"With woeful measures wan Despair
Low sullen sounds their grief beguiled."

Whilst we regret the existence of the above diseases and symptoms, we are prepared to offer an invaluable gift of chemistry for the removal of the consequences.

The Great Medical Discovery!
Dr. WALKER'S CALIFORNIA
VINEGAR BITTERS,

Hundreds of Thousands
Bear testimony to their Wonderful Curative Effects

WHAT ARE THEY?

THEY ARE NOT A VILE
FANCY DRINK,
Made of Poor Rum, Whiskey, Proof Spirits and Refuse Liquors doctored, spiced and sweetened to please the taste, called "Tonics," "Appetizers," "Restorers," &c., that lead the tippler on to drunkenness and ruin, but are a true Medicine, made from the Native Roots and Herbs of California, free from all Alcoholic Stimulants. They are the GREAT BLOOD PURIFIER and LIFE GIVING PRINCIPLE, a perfect Renovator and Invigorator of the System, carrying off all poisonous matter and restoring the blood to a healthy condition. No person can take these Bitters according to direction and remain long unwell.

For Inflammatory and Chronic Rheumatism and Gout, Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Bilious, Remittent and Intermittent Fevers, Diseases of the Blood, Liver, Kidneys, and Bladder, these Bitters have been most successful. Such Diseases are caused by Vitiated Blood, which is generally produced by derangement of the Digestive Organs.

DYSPEPSIA OR INDIGESTION.
Headache, Pain in the Shoulders, Coughs, Tightness of the Chest, Dizziness, Sour Eructations of the Stomach, Bad taste in the Mouth, Bilious Attacks, Palpitation of the Heart, Inflammation of the Lungs, Pain in the regions of the Kidneys, and a hundred other painful symptoms, are the offsprings of Dyspepsia.

They invigorate the Stomach and stimulate the torpid liver and bowels, which render them of unequalled efficacy in cleansing the blood of all impurities, and imparting new life and vigor to the whole system.

FOR SKIN DISEASES, Eruptions, Tetter, Salt Rheum, Blotches, Spots, Pimples, Pustules, Boils, Carbuncles, Ring-Worms, Scald-Head, Sore Eyes, Erysipelas, Itch, Scurfs, Discolorations of the Skin, Humors and Diseases of the Skin, of whatever name or nature, are literally dug up and carried out of the system in a short time by the use of these Bitters. One bottle in such cases will convince the most incredulous of their curative effects.

Cleanse the Vitiated Blood whenever you find its impurities bursting through the skin in Pimples, Eruptions or Sores; cleanse it when you find it obstructed and sluggish in the veins; cleanse it when it is foul, and your feelings will tell you when. Keep the blood pure and the health of the system will follow.

PIN, TAPE and other WORMS, lurking in the system of so many thousands, are effectually destroyed and removed. For full directions, read carefully the circular around each bottle.
